

C I R R I C U L U M V I T A E

Dr. Sotirios Triantafyllou was born in Athens, Greece. He holds a PhD Degree from Panteion University (Department of Communication, Media and Culture) and he also holds a master's degree (MSc) in Culture and Communication from Panteion University (Department of Communication, Media and Culture). He is teaching staff in the postgraduate program of Sports Journalism in University of Peloponnese, department of Sports Management from 2021 and in the postgraduate program of Journalism in Open University of Cyprus. He has been an instructor of Journalism-certified by EOPPEP- in Public Vocational Training Institutes of Professional Learning, in the field of journalism and communication and trainer of the Center for Education and Lifelong Learning of the University of Peloponnese, Panteion University, University of Athens and Aristotle University of Salonika. From 2019 until 2023 he was teaching staff in the University of Patras and from 2015-2019 was teaching staff in Technological Institute of Western Greece.

He is president of the Panhellenic Federation of Journalist's Unions (POESY) from October 2022 and member of the board of Athens-Macedonian News Agency from January 2023. He was president of the Greek Sports Journalists Association (2012-2018), member of the Executive Committee of the European Union of Sports Journalists (2017-2022) and member of the Executive Committee of the Union of Sports Journalists of Southeastern Europe (2014-2016).

He has worked in sports and political newspapers, television and radio stations and websites, having covered major sports events (Olympic Games, World Cups and European Football Championships). He has also been a columnist for sports, political, historical and social issues, and has worked as a presenter of TV and radio broadcasts and newscasts. In 2019 he was a director of communication and media operations in Beach Mediterranean Games of Patras and from 2021-2024 was director of Communication and Media in the Hellenic Football Federation. In 2019 he was awarded by the Foundation for Promotion of Journalism Athanasiou Vas. Mpotsi for his contribution to Journalism.

He is author of the book "The media and journalism in transition - The changing working conditions of journalists in the digital age", which is a recommended book in two university departments in Greece, in the Department of Sports Management of the University of Peloponnese, in the course "Mass Media and Journalism in Sports" and in the Department of Communication and Digital Media of the University of Western Macedonia in the course " Online Journalism".